

Weekly Announcements
ESU Upward Bound

Week of October 10, 2009

- ☺ A lot of today's announcements will look familiar...Because if things are worth saying once, sometimes they're worth saying twice!
- ☺ PSSA scores are still needed! Bring in your PSSA scores if you're a freshman or a senior. We need them for the annual federal performance report.
- ☺ What should you do if you're absent? First, call the UB office at (570) 422-3476 and let us know as soon as you can, or you can email HB at ms_hb@hotmail.com. If you know in advance that you won't be in, get your work from your instructors prior to your absence. Second, contact your instructors via email for the work you've missed.

Making up your work should come at no surprise. It's in the handbook.

- ☺ Have your parents / guardians seen the announcements? When you're finished reading these at the end of the day on Saturday, please take them home and share them with your parents / guardians so they know what's going on at UB on a weekly basis. Thanks!
- ☺ Share the Wiki page with your parents / guardians! I had an email from a parent last weekend who was unaware of what it is the Wiki page is all about. Take them there online. The link? <http://upwardbound-esu.wikispaces.com>
- ☺ What to do if the weather's questionable...It's early but we're trying to make sure you're prepared well in advance for any messy winter weather. If you wake up on a Saturday morning and you're not sure if we have class, call the UB office at (570) 422-3476. We'll have a cancellation message posted on there. If you get the regular message, it means we have classes.
